

Fraud and corrupt practices

ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) and ICAB (the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Belize) present a seminar on Fraud and corrupt practices.

Topics include:

- Fraud in the Public Service
- Fraud in non profit organizations
- Key indicators of fraud and corruption

Presenters:

Maria Fernandez-Stuart of Forensic Solutions Limited has been working in Belize in the accounting / auditing field for more than 16 years. She is a Certified Fraud Examiner, Certified Forensic Accountant, Forensic Certified Public Accountant and Certified Public Accountant. Ms. Fernandez-Stuart operates a private practice in Belize and provides audit, accounting, tax and consulting services to a diverse clientele.

David Wolfe is the founder of Glasgow Forensic Group LLC; United States affiliate of Forensics Solutions Limited. He has more than 20 years of forensic accounting experience and is one of the pioneers of modern day forensic accounting / investigation. Mr Wolfe is a Certified Public Accountant.

Other information: 3 CPD units.

Workshop materials, lunch and breaks included.

Certificates will be awarded by ACCA.

Early booking is advisable as places will be limited.

Fraud and corrupt practices

Date / Time: 31 March 2009 / 9.00am - 12.00pm

Fee: BZ$ 150 (ACCA / ICAB members) / BZ$ 175 (non-members)

Venue: Belize Intitute of Management (BIM) 2090 Chancellor Street Belize City. For more information contact Adrianna Camal at ICAB tel 223-2455 / 223-0550 fax 223-1250 or email secretariat@icab.bz

ACCA